

Pilbara Local History Studies Program

Juluwarlu Aboriginal Corporation, Roebourne

Juluwarlu Aboriginal Corporation is an Indigenous organisation dedicated to the recording, preservation and maintenance of Yindjibarndi language and culture. The following resources are available through Juluwarlu.

<http://www.juluwarlu.pilbara.net/>

Pilbara Resources

Ngurra Warndurala Buluyugayi Wuyumarri – Exploring Yindjibarndi Country – Gregory Gorge
Published by JAC 2005

Ngurra Warndurala Buluyugayi -- Exploring Yindjibarndi Country – Millstream
Published by JAC 2007

Garruragan – Yindjibarndi Fauna, JAC 2005

CG Brandenstein & AP Thomas, Taruru – Aboriginal songs and poetry from the Pilbara, Rigby 1973 (out of print but some copies held at Juluwarlu)

FJF Wordick, The Yindjibarndi Language Dept Linguistics, Australian National University

Other suggested resources

Pilbara Journey from transcripts collected by Anna Vitenburgs and Loreen Brehaut. Ed Trevor Douglass
Published Robe River Iron Associates 2000

DL Gordon, The West Pilbara – sail and teams to bulk carriers and bitumen, pub Hesperian Press 2004

K Forrest, The Challenger and the Change, pub Hesperian Press 1996
(colonisation and settlement of NW Australia 1861 – 1914)

Kathy de la Rue, Pearl Shell and Pastures, Cossack Project Committee (inc) 1979 (story of Cossack and Roebourne from 1910)

Linda & Bernie Ryder, In the Beginning – teaching resources (try DET and Karratha Local History collection)

John Pidgeon & Michael Bosworth, NTWA Conservation Plan for the Police, Court House and Gaol Precinct, Roebourne 1995

Tindale's maps